1.1.154
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, December 18, 2003
www.unc.bz

1. My promises are true, and altogether lovely, lovely, lovely beyond any description you have to delineate them, or even try to image them for others. But your heart feels them, your heart feels them, your heart feels them in emotion, emotion, emotion of Me that I created, created for My creation to feel and know Me in intimacy and emotion-full responses.

2. Healing flows through My emotion, and in My emotion, often. I am the Lord of emotion, My emotion, emotion that I gave and built into My people for a purpose. I knew what I was doing and I completely cared for My creation—I still do, I still do, I still do and Ted—this is part of your job: to let people know how, and how well I take care of My people, My family, My consecrated-fully-surrendered.

3. I made emotion and man—every person—needs emotion, for without emotion life is sterile and no fun. So many have perverted my emotion and failed to understand emotion, and even purposefully stripped it out of many areas of worship, but Ted, I am returning My emotion to My people to live—My "live," and let, help, them live—their life, with emotion—emotional purity, purity in emotion, emotion of Me.

4. Oh My emotion Ted, so pure, so pure, so utterly deeply penetrating the core of the soul, the spirit, the spirit/soul, and refreshing all of the body, the thinking apparatus and the spiritual aspects of my creation.

5. Refresh My people and let them feel Me in the new things I am doing and reorient them to My values and how I am emotion and I value emotion.

6. Let those who think I don't value emotion, or think I am emotion, come into My presence, and see how they stand, or don't stand, or how they bow or fall or cry and weep and repent. Oh Ted, I am not unexciting. I am not sterile. I am not staid and stodgy. I am pure excitement, I am pure life. And those that live close in Me live life to the fullest, they life to its fullest, they live My design for them—in fullness and wonderfully powered emotion, powered by Me, powered by purity, powered by My Spirit.

7. I love My people.
Emotion My people. I've directed you to this before.
Be Me.
Enjoy your day.
Thank you for getting up early and loving Me so, touching Me so.
I love you.
More later.

Dad